

2009 Expedia[®], Inc. Corporate Citizenship Overview

Our Offices Around The Globe

Around the world, Expedia, Inc. offices and our employees support their local communities through volunteerism, drives to gather clothing, books, and toys, and financial grants. Below are highlights of Expedia's community involvement in Washington State where the company is headquartered.

Boys & Girls Clubs of Bellevue

More than 100 at-risk youth have a safe place to learn and grow after school thanks to Expedia's sponsorship of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Bellevue's Stevenson Elementary Club.

Hopelink

More than 14,000 meals were provided to kids in need thanks to employee donations of food and funds during the Hopelink 2009 End Summer Hunger campaign and "CANstruction" competition.

Olympic National Park

Expedia, Inc. sponsored more than 90 students from Washington schools at Olympic Park Institute's outdoor science education program at Lake Crescent. We also provided over 2,300 hours of employee time to develop a sustainable tourism plan for the Lake Quinault community.

Hopelink CANstruction

Earth Day Park Cleanup

SeattleWorks Day Park Cleanup

Boys and Girls Clubs Dedication

Olympic National Park

Boys & Girls Clubs

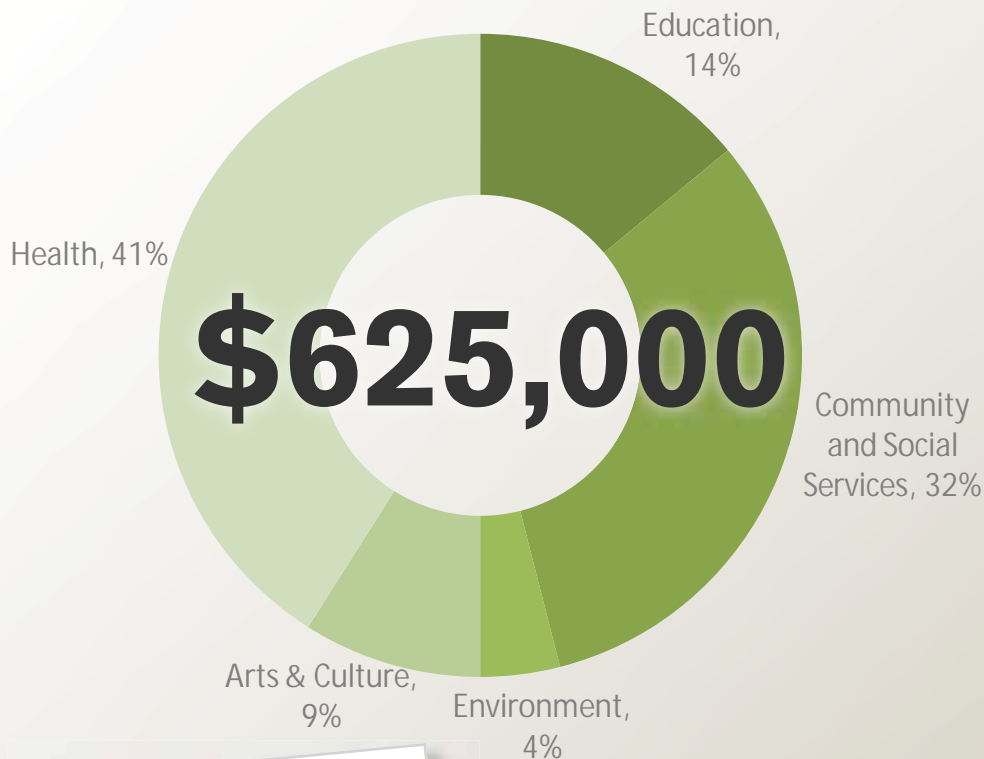

Hopelink CANstruction

Expedia, Inc. is committed to supporting communities around the world through corporate giving and employee volunteerism. We believe that our efforts to support healthy communities are good for our employees, our company, the travel industry and the world.

Contact: expcomre@expedia.com

Matching Gifts

Employee contributions and Expedia, Inc. matching gifts resulted in more than $625,000 contributed to nearly 500 non-profit and educational organizations in 2009.

3,241

Metric tons of CO₂ that were offset by Expedia's purchase of TerraPass Carbon offsets for company business travel (air | hotel | car)

4,500+

of hours Expedia, Inc. employees volunteered in 2009

$80,000

Supporting community and civic programs in Washington state, where Expedia, Inc. is headquartered

$240,000

Supporting the World Heritage Alliance for Sustainable Tourism

89,000,000+
Travel Miles

Offset by Expedia consumers via the TerraPass carbon offsets program on Expedia points of sale

Puget Sound Corporate Soccer Challenge Benefitting Ronald McDonald House

Contact: expcomre@expedia.com